

Advanced Master's in International Tax Law

International Tax Law: Principles, Policy and Practice

The University of Amsterdam (UvA) and IBFD have joined forces to create an advanced LLM programme designed to meet the growing worldwide need for specialists in the policy and practical aspects of international tax law. Become part of a wide international network and enjoy full access to the IBFD resources. This one-year, full-time programme will be based in the diverse and cosmopolitan city of Amsterdam, the Netherlands.

For more information or to apply visit: uva.nl/llm-international-tax-law or email: tax-llm-fdr@uva.nl

Application for the LLM must be before the 1st of April every year

Open to students with a university degree in law, economics or business administration